

WHEN THE GOING GETS TOUGH, THE TOUGH GET GOING.

2010 ANNUAL REPORT

OUR MISSION / NeighborWorks[®] Greater Manchester

ENHANCES PEOPLE'S LIVES AND THE

COMMUNITY ENVIRONMENT BY PROVIDING

ACCESS TO QUALITY HOUSING SERVICES,

REVITALIZING NEIGHBORHOODS

AND SUPPORTING OPPORTUNITIES

FOR PERSONAL EMPOWERMENT.

It has been a short, but exciting year.

Short because we changed our fiscal year end from June 30 to March 31 to more closely align with our portfolio of properties. This meant we only had nine months in this past fiscal year. One would reasonably expect to only accomplish 75% of a typical year's work in the condensed time frame. That was not the case, which is what made it such an exciting year.

As the great American dream of owning a home has evolved into a terrible nightmare for many owners, we have faced a new level of people in need of foreclosure prevention counseling. We now offer classes on the topic that rival the number of participants in our own homebuyer education seminars.

Other new challenges we faced resulting from economic fallout were regulations pertaining to the mortgage industry. Now subject to the same requirements as other lenders, we have become licensed to carry out our loan services to the community.

Keeping with the saying, "when the going gets tough, the tough get going," we began construction on our first project outside the City of Manchester where we are completing 25 new rental units in Goffstown. We were also successful in getting the first development approved in New Hampshire under the state's workforce housing statute. As a result, we will soon begin construction on 16 new rental units in the Town of Hooksett. While we work on these new initiatives, we continue to lead the revitalization effort in Manchester's West Granite neighborhood where we have acquired six properties, some slated for demolition and others for rehabilitation in hopes of transforming this neighborhood.

Finally, our Board of Directors established a new strategic plan that sets our goals for the next three years while taking into consideration the changing landscape we see almost daily. All this was accomplished in this short year when we also had our organizational rating with NeighborWorks[®] America boosted to the highest level of exemplary.

We are grateful to all of our donors, financial partners, and volunteers whose support and involvement help to make all of this activity possible.

If you ask him, David Goodwin will tell you he was in the funeral business.

But if you ask most anyone else, they will tell that while Goodwin made his living in the funeral business, his real business—his passion—was the business of improving Manchester.

For more than 60 years the former owner of Goodwin Funeral Home has been involved with seemingly countless organizations whose business it is to improve life in the Queen City in one fashion or another. From serving as a deacon at First Congregational Church, an officer of the Manchester Rotary Club and president of the Calumette Social Club to serving in leadership positions for an array of city banks and nonprofits, Goodwin's life has been one of service to his community.

And since 1992, that service has included serving on the Board of Trustees for NeighborWorks[®] Greater Manchester.

It was while serving as a trustee for the Cogswell Benevolent Trust in the early 1990s that Goodwin first became aware of a nascent organization of business, governmental and political leaders looking to revitalize Manchester's Center City neighborhood. After learning more about the group's plans to promote home ownership and develop quality affordable rental housing, he knew he had to get involved.

"I was impressed. The organization saw what had to be done and they were doing it," he said.

In addition to helping raise the financial resources and community goodwill necessary to get the organization off the ground, Goodwin's influence also ensured that the Cogswell Benevolent Trust provided continued funding to what was then known as Manchester Neighborhood Housing Services, a financial commitment that continues to the present day and has totaled more than a quarter million dollars.

In honor of Goodwin's many contributions to the organization — including long-time personal financial support — NeighborWorks® Greater Manchester honored Goodwin in 2008 with the creation of the David P. Goodwin Outstanding Neighbor Award. The annual award honors an individual or entity whose support of NeighborWorks® Greater Manchester has helped the organization meet its mission of service to the community.

"I am interested in Manchester and interested in making a great city get even better. That's why I support NeighborWorks[®] Greater Manchester," he said.

William and Betty Addo did everything right. After immigrating to the United States from Ghana in the 1990s, the couple worked hard to obtain the American Dream: homeownership.

"We didn't come here with folded arms," said William. "We came to work, not laze around." By 2006, the Addos had saved enough money to qualify for a 30-year fixed interest rate loan through a local conventional lender and closed on a single family home on Manchester's east side on December 1 of that year. Their American Dream had finally become a reality. But less than a month later, that dream began to crumble.

First, Betty suffered a fall and broke both of her wrists, putting her out of work — and without health insurance — for six months. The Addos experienced firsthand how easily one unexpected medical emergency can deplete a lifetime's worth of savings and leave a family on the brink of financial disaster. To pay for her costly diabetes medicine and physical therapy, the couple had to deplete the vast majority of their savings to pay their mortgage.

Eventually, Betty's wrists healed and she returned to work. And though most of their savings was gone, the Addos kept current on their mortgage. Then in the fall of 2008, William injured his back, which he had broken in 2002. Forbidden by his doctor to work, William began receiving disability insurance, but it wasn't enough. By the end of 2009 their savings was completely exhausted.

This time, the couple had to spend their remaining savings to keep the house. But by the end of 2009 that money was exhausted too. "We tried to pay our mortgage by any means we could," said William. "We worked hard for our house. Every bit of our savings is in the house. If we were to lose it that would mean we worked so hard for nothing."

Not knowing where to go or what to do, the Addos were referred to NeighborWorks[®] Greater Manchester by their lender. The couple first attended one of the organization's bi-monthly foreclosure prevention and intervention classes, where they learned what options were available to them.

Next, they began working one-on-one with HomeOwnership Manager Kellie Coffey, who worked with the couple for nearly six months, assisting them with everything from cutting expenses and crafting a new family budget to informing them of available property tax exemptions to working with their lender to modify their loan. In the end, the Addos were able to get a short term loan modification with a monthly payment that they can afford.

And while the future is anything but certain, the Addos said that thanks to NeighborWorks[®] Greater Manchester, they have a much better chance of holding on to their house.

"It's still going to be hard," William said, "but now we at least have some breathing room. We have hope."

"We tried to pay our mortgage by any means we could. We worked hard for our house. Every bit of our savings is in the house. If we were to lose it that would mean we worked so hard for nothing."
